Agreement for the purchase of Adelaide Weighing (Adelaide – South Australia)

Precia Molen announces the extension of its Australian operations with the purchase of the business of Adelaide Weighing (<http://www.adelaideweighing.com.au>), based in Adelaide in South-Australia. Adelaide Weighing activities will now be operated by a newly created company, Precia Molen South-Australia Pty Ltd, jointly created with the owner and managing director of Adelaide Weighing (shareholder of 25%).

Adelaide Weighing is a distributor of weighing equipment and provides services of industrial weighing equipment in the State of South-Australia, when it operates one of the only weighbridge fabrication workshop in Australia. The company benefits from an excellent reputation in servicing a sizeable and renowned customer base. Adelaide Weighing realises a turnover of circa 2 million Australian dollars and currently has 14 employees.

Adelaide Weighing has been distributing a part of Precia Molen's range since Precia Molen Australia was created. Adelaide Weighing customers will now have access to the full range of Precia Molen products, solutions and expertise.

Precia Molen in Australia will then account for 20 employees in three of the most important Australian economic regions: Brisbane, Sydney and Adelaide.

Precia Molen now employs circa 157 people in the Asia Pacific region (India, Malaysia, China, Australia and New Zealand).
